Dear Ms. Denny:

My apologies for the delay in responding to your inquiries regarding The Committee for Working Families' Year End Report (7/1/99-12/31/99).

I. Reimbursement Checks

As we discussed, we were unable to adequately determine if the checks you highlighted were contributions from corporations. As a result, we have provided refunds to the following donors:

1. Ultima Chiropractic Center, PA
2. Metalogic Systems, LLC
3. North Bergen Dental Medicine Associates
4. Emerson Associates, LLC
5. Pain Control & Treatment Clinic

6. Tak Realty and Investment, LLC

Please see the attached photocopies of the refund checks and a sample letter.

II. Contributor Information

Your letter notes that The Committee for Working Families' report discloses contributions from individuals "for which the identification is not complete." Please note that we have used "best efforts" to obtain the missing information. First, our original solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. (See enclosed photocopy of response card.)

Second, we have made a written request clearly asking for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution. The written request also informed the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. This letter was sent on January 20, 2000. Unfortunately, at that time, we were unaware that a pre-addressed post card or return envelope was necessary. As such, we have now mailed identical letters that include a self-addressed envelope. (See enclosed sample letter). At this time, we have yet to receive any new contributor information.

III. Administrative Expenses

As we discussed, all administrative expenses for The Committee for Working Families are disclosed on our reports. These expenses include salaries, telephone service, Federal Express, mailings, bank fees, and office supplies. The Committee for Working Families does not pay rent for its space. Our operation merely consists of two
